Runaways Returned.
One week ago last Tuesday night Ora Hubbard and Morris Green unconsciously left for parts unknown. Ora Hubbard is a son of Frank Hubbard, who has been fireman and engineer at the Bending Works for years. Morris Green's father lives in Nebraska, but his home for years has been with his aunt in Brighton, O. At the time of his leaving he was boarding with John Gulde and attending school. Mr. Hubbard spent considerable time during the week looking for the wayward pair, but without avail. On Sunday evening Mayor Couch received the following dispatch:

Hamilton, O., Sept. 17, 1899.
Mayor G. L. Couch,
Wellington, O.

Have Ora Hubbard and Morris Green runaway boys; what shall we do with them. Answer quick.

C. S. Basch, mayor.
Mr. Hubbard being away at the time in search of the boys, Mrs. Hubbard was consulted and it was decided to send after them. Mayor Couch called up the Chief of Police at Hamilton over the long distant telephone and instructed him to hold the boys until they could send for them. Marshal Whitehead left immediately on the 10 o'clock train, and returned home Monday evening at 8:10 with the boys.

Frightened at an Electric Car.
While Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Sutliff were returning from the Elyria fair last Friday, their horse became frightened at an electric car, and jumping to one side of the road caused the buggy to overturn, throwing both Mr. and Mrs. Sutliff to the ground. They escaped with only a few bad bruises and a severe shaking up.

Burglars.
Burglars entered the house of Mrs. Mary Dorchester, east of town on Friday night, by forcing open a rear window. Mrs. Dorchester being out of town, the value and amount of goods secured cannot be ascertained until her return.

The Best Remedy for Flu.
Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flu, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by Near & Wells.

The first theater in the world to be heated by electricity is the Odeon in Buenos Ayers. A short time ago the proprietors asked a local company if it would undertake to heat their premises by electricity, and, although the management had many misgivings as to the possibility of being able to do so, so sanguine was the electrical engineer of the concern, an American, that he could devise a practical and satisfactory system of electric heating apparatus for the purpose that he was given carte blanche and immediately proceeded to work out his scheme, which he has done successfully.

Pass the Good Word Along.
Most of the sales of Ath-lo-pho-ros are made through one cured patient telling a friend. We admit that advertising in the newspapers helps, but we had rather cure one man than have a dozen advertisements in a dozen newspapers. If you want to know whether Ath-lo-pho-ros cures Rheumatism or Neuralgia, just find someone who has used it, and ask him.

Toledo, O., Feb. 21st, 1898.
Gentlemen—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the last eleven years. I was working in the Michigan Central freight house in Toledo, and one day I was limping so bad one of my fellow workmen said to me, "If I were you I would try Ath-lo-pho-ros once and see if that won't help you." As soon as I had taken the third dose I felt that it relieved me, and so I kept taking the medicine right along until I felt better. But every now and then in damp weather I feel the Rheumatism coming, and as soon as I feel it I take the medicine and it helps me every time. I would not be without it now. My Rheumatism is Inflammatory Rheumatism in the joints.

I remain, Chas. Schirmel.

THANK-OFFERING MEETING held in the Congregational Sunday-School Rooms Last Friday Afternoon.

The annual thank offering meeting of the ladies of the Congregational church was held in the Sunday-school room Friday September 15, at 2:00 o'clock. Sixty ladies gathered here in response to the invitation, "What shall I render unto the Lord." A pleasant meeting place with banks of golden rod, purple asters, and scarlet berries making the room bright with color.

Mrs. Sheffield, from the mission field in north China addressed the ladies in regard to her work, and the changes which have taken place in that country during the 30 years of her life there. Especially marked is the change which is taking place in education. The North China College at Tungoh, of which Mr. Sheffield has charge is one of the great centers of educational influence. At a recent commencement the "Hallelujah" chorus was rendered by 50 Chinese voices, in such time and harmony, and with such thrilling effect, as would awaken admiration if heard from any college platform in America.

"The Good Shepherd," a solo was sung by Miss Mabelle Benedict.

Mrs. Arthur Reed of Oberlin read a paper upon responsibility, beginning with this illustration, "It is said that in the staircase of the Berlin museum a great painter has portrayed the intensity of the battle of the Huns by representing in a cloud above the battle-field, the spirits of the fallen warriors still carrying on the conflict." It is possible for each one of us to set in motion forces that shall reach out to that one far off divine event, to which the whole creation moves.

"When the Kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ."

At the death of Dr. Goodell of St. Louis, his church instead of sending costly flowers placed over 400 in the treasury of the O. H. M. S. An offering which shall blossom and bear fruits. The call to a life of love and sacrifice is to you and to me.

"Ye have sounded forth the trumpet, that shall never call forth retreat; he is lifting out the hearts of men, before his judgement seat. Oh, be swift my soul to answer him, be jubilant my feet our God is marching on."

At the close of the meeting ice cream and cake were served. The thank offering amounted to $39.17.

The Woman's Missionary Society has this year contributed $110 to Home and Foreign Missions. There has also been a special contribution of $10 for the W. B. M. I. debt.

The money deposited at the Lorain County Savings bank and the rate is 4.03 per cent on daily balances. During the year the county has had on deposit as much as $400,000 at one time.

OBERLIN BUSINESS COLLEGE.
Largest Opening in the History of the Oberlin Business College.

The fall term of the Oberlin Business College opened the 4th inst. with the largest attendance in the history of the college. In fact the growth of the school for the last ten years has been gradual and substantial, and indicates that the public has confidence in its management and in the worth of the courses given at Oberlin. There are now enrolled nearly one hundred full course day students, all of whom are more than satisfied with the school, and appreciate its thorough methods. The officers of the school anticipating a marked increase in the attendance have engaged additional teaching force, and otherwise prepared to make this the very best year in the history of this old reliable school.

Seven students entered from Elyria September 4th, and six from Lorain. Several others from each place plan to enter later in the term. Last year at the opening of the fall term there were only two from Elyria and none from Lorain. While the patronage of the school comes this year from various parts of the United States as far as Philadelphia on the east and Iowa and Missouri on the west, the increase is more marked from Lorain county, the home of the school. Students are enrolled from Grafton, Elyria, Lorain, Laporte, Kipton, Oberlin, Rochester, Wellington and other places.

Notwithstanding the unusually large number in the class just founded the authorities of the college have decided to start another class in shorthand November 1st, in order to accommodate several who wish enter then. Students are received for the business course at any time.

Lessons in Scenery.
As soon as the foliage is tinted with different colors, a chance will be given for a short time to the art teachers, advanced pupils and new beginners, in Wellington, to improve themselves by O. C. Pratt, a professional artist and critic, who was a pupil in the school of Florence, Italy. Landscape, perspective and scenery taught. There is no artist on this continent that can go into the field where there is foliage with the sky clear and sketch the shade or paint the scene before him true to nature unless he understands scenery. I will give $50 to any artist that will do it. 25 cents for each class not less than three pupils, four hours a lesson. 50 cents for one pupil. Technical points, one dollar for two hours. Dealing with colors few artists have ever mastered them. Moonlight views on glass to be illuminated. Pastel painting with liquids, charcoal portraits set to paper with oil. Those who desire to take lessons of Mr. Pratt can drop a postal giving their name and residence. Those who can not draw naturally can learn to draw mechanically from a scene or their money refunded at the third lesson. Those who intend to take lessons of Mr. Pratt, must send their names and addresses in before the 11th of October. Those who take now will hit it, those who wait may miss it. Fools blow their horns against artists ability before they know their ability.

O. C. Pratt.
